ESSENTIAL RESPONSIBILITIES/DUTIES

- Create a welcoming environment for new and returning guests, including greeting guests as they enter, orienting new guests to the shelter, and answering questions.
- Work effectively as a member of the shelter team, including maintaining open lines of communication, consulting about guest needs or situations, cooperating to complete tasks, and engaging in shared decision-making, as appropriate.
- Treat guests with respect and professionalism by practicing active listening, preserving guest confidentiality, avoiding power struggles, and maintaining patience in difficult situations.
- Collaborate with the Shelter Manager and Assistant Shelter Manager to identify guests who may need additional support and to strategize about specific guest situations.
- Complete intakes with new guests and update guest records for returning guests in the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) with support from Shelter Assistants, as appropriate.
- Meet with guests to identify goals; provide referrals to and information about programs and resources; work with guests towards obtaining permanent housing.
- Complete monthly HMIS exits of guests who have not stayed in the shelter in the past 30 days; follow up with exiting guests when possible to gather information about exit status.
- In collaboration with other shelter staff, facilitate guests checking into shelter nightly; create scan cards for guests and assist guests in using these to check in, if applicable.
- Organize work, set priorities, and manage time effectively to meet the needs of numerous shelter guests, maintain documentation expectations, and support shelter operations.
- Complete VI-SPDAT assessments as requested and work with Coordinated Entry staff to connect guests with the Dane County Coordinated Entry system.
- Consistently collect other data necessary to meet funding and reporting requirements; maintain organized records of client data in HMIS, on the Porchlight server, and/or with paper documents.
- Communicate shelter rules and policies; set limits with guests as appropriate, in keeping with a low-barrier shelter model.
- Identify and intervene productively in emergency situations, including medical emergencies, mental health crises, and interpersonal conflicts.
- Work individually and as a member of the shelter team to engage in effective de-escalation.
- Provide support and assistance to individuals experiencing crises due to mental illness and/or substance use.
- Engage in proactive and creative problem solving to maintain a safe environment and keep people inside (able to continue accessing shelter).
- Engage in ongoing training, coaching, and education related to de-escalation, substance use, mental health symptoms, and other professional skills (provided by Porchlight). Complete certifications as required.
- Maintain thorough and timely documentation of incidents, guest situations, and services provided, in keeping with program guidelines.
- Attend and participate productively in regular team meetings.
- Maintain appropriate professional boundaries with guests, including refraining from engaging in social relationships or exchanging money/goods with guests. Report preexisting relationships that may cause a conflict of interest to the Shelter Manager and Case Management Supervisor.
- Sweep, mop, wipe surfaces, take out trash, and perform other cleaning tasks as required to maintain a safe and sanitary environment. Use personal protective equipment (PPE) and follow appropriate protocols when cleaning bodily fluids.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
